

Week 5

Happy are the Merciful

What day of your life would you most like to relive? Why?

Sunday

The faithful love of the Lord never ends! His mercies never cease. Great is His faithfulness; His mercies begin afresh each morning. Lamentations 3:22-23

How would you explain "never ends" and "never cease" to someone?

Why do you think this verse is so essential to comprehend, for our daily faith journey?

Take a few minutes to thank God for His daily faithfulness in your life.

3 ways God has shown His faithfulness towards me.

What is one thing you are embarrassed to admit?

Monday

But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. Luke 6:35-36

Why is it so hard to love our enemies and do good to them?

What do you think is the reward that Jesus promises here, if we love our enemies?

Ask God to fill you with His Spirit today, so that you can continue to become more like Him and learn how to love your enemies.

Which of your habits annoys you the most?

Tuesday

Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Ephesians 4:2

What are some quirks of people around you, that you struggle to handle?

What do you think it looks like to be "completely" humble, gentle and patient with some of those annoying quirks of people close to you?

Do you believe we could be happier, if we were able to bear with one another more? Why or why not?

3 things I'm going to choose to practise patience
with in the moment, when the need arises.

What creates tension for you, these days?

Wednesday

Then the master called the servant in. “You wicked servant,” He said, “I cancelled all that debt of yours because you begged me to. Shouldn’t you have had mercy on your fellow servant just as I had on you?” Matthew 18:32-33

In this parable, Jesus shows us that we should show mercy to those around us. Why do you believe this is important?

Write down a moment in your life, when you were stuck and needed to depend on God’s mercy.

How can that experience of receiving God’s mercy help you to be patient and merciful to someone in your life?

If you could be instantly fluent in one other language, what would it be and why?

Thursday

On hearing this, Jesus said, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. But go and learn what this means: ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.” Matthew 9:12-13

What could it mean, when Jesus says that He “desires mercy, not sacrifice”?

Who is someone that is different from you, that you can intentionally build a friendship with? What are some ways you can start to intentionally build that friendship?

God’s heart is for all people. Take some time this morning to pray for those who are different from you and need to experience God’s love, through you.

MAN

You have $10,000 and one week to spend it on a trip to somewhere in the world. Where would you go and why?

Friday

But because of His great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions — it is by grace you have been saved.
Ephesians 2:4-5

Unpack what it looks like for God to be rich in mercy.

It is because of this richness of mercy and God's generosity that we are made alive. Identify some areas of your life that need God's grace and mercy to come alive.

3 things that brought me joy this week.

Thank God for all He is doing in your life to make it beautiful.

Something that really resonated with me, in today's church program.

Saturday

One-liner(s) to think about this week.

Something I'd like to share with someone, this week.
