

Week 6

Happy are the Pure in Heart

What product or service could you easily and happily represent as their national spokesperson, because you love it so much?

---

---

Sunday

The integrity of the upright guides them, but the unfaithful are destroyed by their duplicity.
Proverbs 11:3

What does it mean to be pure in heart? Is there anybody in your life that you would describe as pure in heart?

---

---

What guides you when it comes to making life decisions and goals?

---

---

---

What would be the value of having your integrity guide you in decision-making?

---

---

You have one minute to speak to the entire nation on national television. Name one or two things you would like to tell them?

Monday

---

---

---

---

All a person's ways seem pure to them, but motives are weighed by the Lord. Proverbs 16:2

What do you think it means that "all of a person's ways seem pure to them?"

---

When you see that our motives are weighed by God, does this encourage or scare you? Why?

---

What would be the value of having your integrity guide you in decision-making?

---

---

What have you purchased that you eventually came to regret?

Tuesday

---

---

Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Psalms 51:10

Psalm 51 is David's prayer after his lack of integrity has been exposed after committing adultery with Bathsheba. What's encouraging about this verse in his prayer?

---

Once our integrity has been compromised, who needs to do the most important work - God or ourselves - to bring forgiveness and change?

---

Is there a situation where your lack of integrity has been exposed, but you have not come clean? If so, pray about it now and ask God to guide you to do the most helpful thing.

---

---

---

---

Spot the difference

Can you find all 16?

If you had one extra hour of free time a day, how would you use it?

Wednesday

---

---

---

How can a young person stay on the path of purity? By living according to your word. Psalms 119:9

One of the most important ways we can stay on the path of integrity is to put into action God's word. Name some practical examples how you believe this could be helpful to you?

---

Why do you think it's challenging to live according to God's word, at times?

---

---

---

How can you create a rhythm of meditating and reading God's word on a daily basis?

---

---

---

What would you try, if you were guaranteed not to fail?

Thursday

---

---

All who have this hope in Him purify themselves, just as He is pure. 1 John 3:3

There is something so life-changing in placing our hope in Jesus. Why do you think we purify ourselves, just by trusting in Jesus?

---

---

When you think of Jesus' integrity, what comes to your mind? How is this helpful for us in our daily lives?

---

---

Jesus cares so much about you that He offered His life, so that you can walk in freedom, whenever we have fallen short. Take some time to thank Jesus for His unconditional and transforming love, which is available to each of us.

---

---

---

---

One thing I ask
The thing I seek most
To dwell with You
To live in Your love
It's here I'm changed
It's here I'm made whole
Reveal to me
All I haven't let go
May who I am in the light
Be who I am in the dark
Oh, how I need You, Jesus

"Integrity", River Valley Worship

What one thing would you like your obituary to say about you?

Friday

---

---

---

And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate the Lord's glory, are being transformed into His image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.
2 Corinthians 3:18

What do you think it means to contemplate the Lord's glory, with unveiled faces?

---

---

---

---

It's amazing that by contemplating or beholding God's character, we are being transformed. How does this motivate you in your relationship with Jesus and being a Jesus-follower?

---

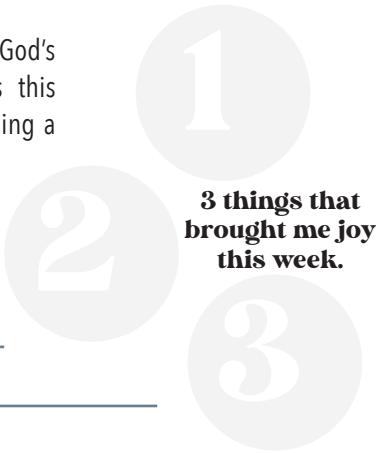

---

---

---

---

---

3 things that brought me joy this week.

As a church we believe that God truly wants you to find genuine happiness!

We believe that the more honest we are with God the more we are transformed from the inside out and become champions of light in this dark world.

Know today that you are so loved by God, no matter what has happened in your life.

We love you and believe that the best is yet to come for your life.

We are praying for you today.

Something that really resonated with me, in today's church program.
