

THE GAMES WE PLAY

MEAN PEOPLE

WEEK 4

TASK: LET GO OF OFFENSE

Being offended is inevitable.
Living offended is a choice.

Jesus didn't call us to be right.
Jesus called us to be loving.

So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples.

JOHN 13:34-35

Claim Today's Truth

Holding onto offense feels powerful, but bitterness makes the burden heavier.

God didn't hand us a stone to carry.
He handed us grace.

Think About It

Is someone living rent-free in your head?
Have you picked up a stone because of something they said, did, or believed?
Could offense be shaping more of your life than you realize? Could someone else be carrying a stone with your name on it?

Your Next Move

Put down the stone. Forgive. Release the grudge. Apologise where you've caused hurt.

Freedom begins when we stop carrying what God's grace was meant to replace.
