

THE GAMES WE PLAY

NO MORE GAMES

WEEK 7

TASK: STOP PLAYING.
RECEIVE GRACE.
EXTEND GRACE.

Grace ends the games.
Grace changes the rules.

While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

ROMANS 5:8

Claim Today's Truth

My failure doesn't get the final word. Jesus does.

Think About It

Where are you still hiding, blaming, keeping score, controlling, or avoiding? | Where are you trying to earn what Jesus wants you to receive by grace? | Who have you judged by the 10% of their story you know? | Have you put a full stop on someone (including yourself) where Jesus may have only put a comma? | Grace means you can stop pretending, stop performing, and come to Jesus as you are.

Your Next Move

Before you hide, judge, blame, or control, pray:
"Jesus, help me receive the grace I cannot earn and extend the grace I have received."

Then take one courageous step out of the game.

Surrender hiding.

Surrender avoiding.

Surrender blaming.

Receive grace.

Surrender small talk.

Extend grace.

Surrender controlling.

Follow Jesus.

Surrender living offended.
